

INTERVARSITY

MISSION

Our purpose, in response to God's love, grace, and truth, is to establish and advance witnessing communities of students and faculty at colleges and universities who follow Jesus as Savior and Lord, growing in love for God, God's Word, and God's people of every ethnicity and culture.

InterVarsity has local chapters on campus at Salem State University and Endicott College. InterVarsity's local Campus Minister, Mollie Clark, is a Partner at Highrock North Shore.

WHY THIS MATTERS TO GOD

Many college students arrive on the North Shore searching for community and meaning. InterVarsity desires to meet college students where they are to share the love, grace, and hospitality of Jesus. Campus staff members and student leadership teams provide opportunities for college students to encounter and respond to the person of Jesus, often for the first time. Even more, InterVarsity seeks to invite students to experience the "family of God" in new ways, especially while they're away from home.

BIBLICAL HOPE

Therefore, be imitators of God as dearly loved children and live in love, just as Christ also loved us and gave himself for us.

Ephesians 5:1-2

PRAYING WITH INTERVARSITY

Pray for opportunities to show compassion and love to students, faculty, and staff on campus through tangible acts of service, living into the Great Commandment

Pray for students to experience and respond to the liberating love of Jesus, even for the first time

Pray that God would raise up new leaders on our campuses, including interns from the seminary

Pray for the partnership between InterVarsity and churches on the North Shore, including Highrock

FOR MORE INFORMATION

For more information about InterVarsity at Salem State and Endicott, contact Mollie Clark at mollie.clark@intervarsity.org

If you're interested in learning more about our community partnerships, visit: highrocknorthshore.org/outreach