Sermon Scripture Passage

Acts 9:1-19

Fun icebreaker question

What is something you used to be sure about, but you've since learned you were wrong about?

Discipleship Cycle: Debrief & Interpret

Last week's "Respond Actively" challenge was: "Have a conversation (other than the one you may have at lifegroup!) with another believer about the ways that you have experienced the Holy Spirit in your life."

Did anyone have a conversation like this? What did you learn?

Quick Review: What stood out to you from this week's passage?

Looking back at your notes from this week's passage and sermon, was there anything you heard for the first time or that caught your attention, challenged or confused you?

My Story

1. As you look back on your spiritual life, what one or two events seem the most significant? Why do they stand out?
 2. Saul had been persecuting Christian believers. How do you explain why

Jesus twice says "persecuting me" (vv. 4-5)?

3. When has God overturned your expectations in a surprising, even shocking way?

Dive Deeper

Re-read Acts 9:10-11.

1. What is daunting about the assignment which the Lord gives Ananias?
 2. Think of a daunting assignment from the Lord. What objections did you raise?
 3. Think about people who you have a hard time loving. What objections do you raise?

Discipleship Cycle: Respond Actively

Who is someone who you have had a hard time loving? What is one tangible step you can take toward loving them this week? Maybe you need to start with being honest before God that you have a hard time loving this person or group. Maybe you're ready to share with them that they can be a brother or sister. What does loving your Saul look like right now?

A special question for couples and families

Our children learn how to treat others and talk about others from how they see us treat others and talk about others. How can we teach our children how to love our neighbors as ourselves, led by our example?
